Honest Advice to Consumptives

Somehow there exists a vast amount of skepticism as to the possibility of curing Consumption. . . . We state none but facts, and are sincere in what we assert.
If ourselves afflicted with Tuberculosis, we should do precisely what we ask others to do—take the E. A. Prindle's remedy promptly and faithfully. . . .
The reason we should do this, and warrant we have for asking all Consumptives to take it, is that we have the reports of many cures, one of which follows:

1319 Duquesne Ave., Phila., Pa.
Gentlemen: "For two years I was afflicted with hemorrhages of the lungs, the number totaled nearly one hundred.
Our family physician advised another climate, as to remain would probably be fatal; however, I remained, and in February of 1902, I was taken with a severe attack of pneumonia. When I recovered sufficiently to walk about the house I was left with a frightful hacking cough, which no medicine I had taken could alleviate. I was again advised to go to another part of the country. It was at this time, March, 1902, that I learned of Eckman's Alternative. In a short time my cough ceased, and I began to feel better.
I am at present in excellent health and feel that as long as I can obtain Eckman's Alternative, I shall never again suffer from this disease. I cannot speak too highly for the good it has done."

man's Alternative, I shall never again

About the State

The shipment of apples to city markets from Middlebury is said to have been the largest ever made in one season and the work is not yet completed.

As the result of breaking up wood, Mr. John Crockett of West Rutland has been very near losing an eye. A piece of the stick flew and struck her in the left eye.

Earl Harrington, employed at the works of the Vermont Marble company in Middlebury, had the top of the thumb and second finger of his left hand cut off by a circular saw Thursday.

The First Congregational church of Morrisville at a meeting Thursday evening unanimously voted to extend a call to Rev. Walter E. Baker of Cowansville, P. Q., to become its pastor.

Mrs. Marcella King of Bristol is the head of a Vermont family which comprises five generations. Mrs. King is 91 years old, is in very good health and lives full of life. Her husband, Mr. King, died at the age of 82. Mrs. King was born in the town of Morrisville, N. H., and married Mr. King in 1840. They have four children, three sons and one daughter.
The oldest son, Mr. George King, is now living in Morrisville, N. H., and is 78 years old. The second son, Mr. John King, is now living in Morrisville, N. H., and is 75 years old. The third son, Mr.
William King, is now living in Morrisville, N. H., and is 72 years old. The daughter, Mrs. Mary King, is now living in Morrisville, N. H., and is 70 years old.

Corporal Hodson of troop L, Fort Etham Allen, fell from a post wagon near Rutland high school Wednesday and was severely injured. He was driving a team of horses and the wagon lost its balance and fell to the ground.
The wagon passed over his head, cutting part of one ear and breaking his shoulder. He was taken in a to the fort, where he was placed in the hospital.

The pocket book stolen from A. J.
Crofts of Enosburg Falls circus day in St. Albans, was found in a station there Wednesday by two boys. The contents of the purse, consisting of checks and other papers to the value of $500, were found undisturbed, and even a new indelible pencil was left. Payment on all the checks but one had been stopped, and Mr. Crofts thinks there was little, if any, change in the pocket book when it was stolen.

A Brattleboro stamp was sold for $805 at the sale of the collection of Isaac Ruchman, which began in New York City Saturday afternoon, Nov. 5. It was a used copy of this rarity, issued in this town in 1846, and the red cancellation "Paid" is in better condition than usual. Unfortunately the lower frame line is gone and the stamp has a small hole which has been skillfully filled in. The purchaser was Mr. Krassas, and at the price he paid the purchase is considered among philatelists a great bargain.

PROMINENT VERMONT LAWYER.
Judge William H. Bliss of Middlebury Died Saturday Night.

Middlebury, Nov. 14.—William H.
Bliss, one of Addison county's best-known lawyers and as a jurist known throughout Vermont, died at his home here Saturday night as the result of a shock of paralysis sustained Friday last. Thursday, the day before he was stricken, he appeared before the legislature relative to the office of judge of probate of this county.

Judge Bliss was born in Royalton October 8, 1847, and was fitted for college at Royalton academy, entering the university of Vermont in 1867 and graduating with the degree of A. B. in 1871.
He then went to Providence, R. I., where he studied law for three years and then at Rochester before coming to this town.

In 1880 Judge Bliss was elected state attorney of this county and was admitted to practice before the United States supreme court in 1895. As prosecuting attorney, Judge Bliss appeared in the limelight quite frequently, two or three sensational murders having been committed during his term. It was Judge Bliss who brought a prior case under the prohibition law, before the United States supreme court in order to test the constitutionality of the law.

Judge Bliss was a man of literary tastes and has written many poems.
His best known book is "Vermont Illustrated," but he assisted Joseph Battell in the compilation of his work on Morgan horses, a book that required 10 years' research and investigation.

He was a forceful speaker and was frequently in demand as a campaign orator and on such other occasions.
He is survived by his wife and one brother. The funeral will be Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

FOUND NOT GUILTY.
Elmer Hewitt Acquitted in Rutland County Court Saturday.

Rutland, Nov. 14.—After being out only a short time the jury in the case of Elmer Hewitt, indicted for a murder reported a verdict of not guilty in Rutland county court Saturday afternoon.
The respondent was charged with house breaking with intent to rob and to commit rape. The state's evidence showed that Hewitt peeped into the window of a bedroom in which his daughter and a young companion slept, and after they had left the room, went inside.

The four lawyers' arguments and the judge's charge being made in addition to the introduction of a little testimony and the case being given to the jury before the adjournment for dinner. B.
L. Stafford, state attorney-elect, made the opening argument for the prosecution and Walter S. Fenton followed for the defense. Ernest H. O'Brien spoke next for the respondent and State's Attorney J. C. Jones closed.

"Had dyspepsia or indigestion for years. No appetite, and what I did eat distressed me terribly. Burdock Blood Purifiers cured me."—J. H. Walker, Sunbury, Ohio.
